CITY TO BUILD A FREE BRIDGE

lion Bonds to Build Bridge on Site of Mayo's Bridge.

Manchester Burcau, Times-Dispatch, 1102 Hull Street.

Alderman B. M. Robertson Introduced an ordinance last night in the Manchester Council providing for the Issuance by the city of $250,000 worth of bonds at four per cent, fifty years, for the erection of a free bridge across James River where Mayo's Bridge is now located. The ordinance was not read but was referred to the Ordinance Committee for consideration. It will be reported back facil and the question of a free bridge across the James leading into Fourteenth Street in Richmond is believed to be an assured fact, "We can float $250,000 worth of four per cent, fifty year bonds," said Mr. Rob-ertson last night, "and one man will take the entire lot."

take the entire lot."

"Who is this gentleman?" queried The Times-Dispatch reporter.

"That's telling too much. But the proof will be given to every member of the Council. These bonds will go into the hands of a man whose confidence in Manchester is unlimited. I do not fear the outcome of this ordinance and I believe that the free bridge will soon be here. It will mean much to this city."

A New Ordinance Offered.

The Hooker ordinance prohibiting the

The Hooker ordinance promiting the shifting of freight cars in the city on the Sabbath or any night in the week, brought about much discussion. The Assembly amended the ordinance so that the first section read that shifting could be done on any night save Sunday night. Mr. Hooker contended that this amendment would virtually kill the effect of the ordinance. By the vote of 3 to 3 the Board refused to concur in the amendment of the Assembly to the ordinance. Messrs, Rudd, Hooker and Patram voted against concurring, and those who favored the Assembly's action were Messrs Ferdue, Abbott and Robertson.

Mr. Hooker then introduced another ordinance to prevent the moving or shift ing of any freight on private yards in

Mr. J. B. Greer, president, represented the Greer Filter Company, of Philadelphia. His company's bid was $17,300.

The Roberts Manufacturing Company, of Philadelphia, represented by Mr. Frank Schoener, placed one bid of $18,900.

The Pittsburg Filter Manufacturing Company, of Pittsburg, submilted three bids, each bid accompanying a special plan for the erection of the plant. The bids were $20,450 and $22,500 and $21,800.

The Federal Filtration System, of No. 141 Broadway, N. Y., represented by Mr. W. M. Deutsch, offered two bids, one $16,825 and the other $18,252.

The New York Continental Jewell Filtration Company, of No. 16 Broad Street, New York, represented by Mr. James R. Fitzpatrick, civil engineer, submitted two bids, one, for $25,600 and the other for Fitzpatrick, civil engineer, submitted bids, one for $25,600 and the other
